

IDROCONSULTING S.r.l.

---

Integrated Management System Policy Quality, Environment and Safety

The IDROCONSULTING s.r.l. Management has the objective of keep active the policies for its Integrated Management System for Quality, Environment and Safety.

The aim of this decision is to bring the company to compete more on the markets by ensuring organizational efficiency, high quality level, respect for the Environment, Health and Safety of the workers also at the level of its technological solutions in order to obtain a continuous and total customer satisfaction.

The IDROCONSULTING S.r.l. Integrated Management System will be based on the following fundamental principles:

- Continuous and total satisfaction of the client needs.
- Respect of the laws and rules in force for which concern Quality, Environment and Safety.
- Responsibility for all as regards Quality, Environment and Safety
- Empowerment of staff in ensuring quality of work done, considering as customers who benefit from the results of that work and prefixing the best interests of the IDC to the one limited of its function
- Planning and implementation of training in disciplines of Quality, Environment, Health and Safety of the personnel of all company functions at all levels
- Policy of Quality, Environment and Security distribution to all the staff and the public
- Systematic refusal of any compromise on the quality, environment and safety of the product
- Periodic definition (at least during the management review) of specific improving objectives for Quality, Environment, Health and Safety of workers and their monitoring
- Commitment to regular assessment, through internal audits, of the adequacy of the Integrated Management System and of this policy on Quality, Environment and Safety at Work
- Commitment to continuous improvement, prevention of pollution and of health and safety of workers
- Quality as organizational efficiency and excellence of the result
- Quality as everyone's responsibility, management and staff
- Ante position quality requirements of the project/work at all others
- Constant improvement of the standard of product quality and optimization of costs through the prevention of defects to avoid waste / remakes
- Commitment to periodic assessment of compliance to laws and to the Environmental and Security requirements
- Implement every effort in organizational, operational and technologic terms to prevent water, air and earth pollution, minimizing the consumption of energy, water and waste production, encouraging the recovery where possible.
- Compliance with all requirements of the customer and any additional requirements identified by Idroconsulting
- Request to all workers to work actively and consciously regarding their obligations about health and safety of workers
- Create and maintain a culture of Safety with the aim of reducing risks for all workers.

15 March 09

The Legal Representative